Touched With Our Feelings Jean Zurcher

There is an excellent resource we are studying before the October WCAS Event. It is a book published some 25 years ago and is an excellent resource. The author, Jean Zurcher: [<https://encyclopedia.adventist.org/article?id=AB64>] was a pastor, teacher and educator, theologian, missionary, and administrator.

The book PDF is online - link below. Every section of the book has multiple source references for verification and

6 Evidence-Based Benefits of Stinging Nettle

Stinging nettle is a nutritious plant popular in Western herbal medicine. It may reduce inflammation, hay fever symptoms, blood pressure and blood sugar levels — among other benefits.

Stinging nettle (Urtica dioica) has been a staple in herbal medicine since ancient times.

Ancient Egyptians used stinging nettle to treat arthritis and lower back pain, while Roman troops rubbed it on themselves to help stay warm (1).

Its scientific name, Urtica dioica, comes from the Latin word uro, which means "to burn," because its leaves can cause a temporary burning sensation upon contact.

The leaves have hair-like structures that sting and also produce itching, redness and swelling (2Trusted Source).

However, once it is processed into a supplement, dried, freeze-dried or cooked, stinging nettle can be safely consumed. Studies link it to a number of potential health benefits.

Here are 6 evidence-based benefits of stinging nettle:

GC 635

When the protection of human laws shall be withdrawn from those who honor the law of God, there will be, in different lands, a simultaneous movement for their destruction. As the time appointed in the decree draws

We know that Jesus' life was not one of fun and games, not filled with amusements and distracting entertainments, frivolous activities, or pleasure-seeking distractions. Jesus became human for the most serious of reasons—to eliminate sin, to stop rebellion, to eradicate falsehood, to be our Savior.

And Jesus knew that in order to win, to eliminate sin, destroy Satan and his power of death (Hebrews 2:14; 2 Timothy 1:10), He Himself would have to suffer many things, ...

near, the people will conspire to root out the hated sect. It will be determined to strike in one night a decisive blow, which shall utterly silence the voice of dissent and reproof. GC 635.1

The people of God—some in prison cells, some hidden in solitary retreats in the forests and the mountains—still plead for divine protection, while in every quarter companies of armed men, urged on by hosts of evil angels, are preparing for the work of death. It is now, in the hour of utmost extremity, that the God of Israel will ...
